Editor's Message

Hello again from Wisconsin. All is well in the hobby of encased. Prices still seem to be moving up, especially for desirable encased, better Indian cents and unusual shapes. Common ones such as coin clubs and Rexall Drug etc. are even getting $2.00 bids. Jim Lawnizak's article contained within this issue deals with this timely subject of prices. Be sure to check it out.

Starting with this issue and continuing for a good number of future issues we will list all the known encased from two to six states. The listing will be as complete as possible, including all what the state cataloger has and all that are in the ACE pool. ACE members then can help in the following three ways. First, look over the listing and check off what you own. Then, let the state cataloger or the editor know. In this way we will have somewhat of an idea as to popularity. Second, look over the listing and if there are any errors make corrections and add any missing words. Often the list of known encased revolves around personal collections and from previous mail bids and sale catalogs. The description in these catalogs often times are abbreviated ending up that way on master lists. And third, send any additions and additional known dates. Most lists are 50 to 60 percent complete. Additions should be described fully, including the slogan side, Keep Me...etc., shape, date and type of coin and make-up of the encasement, aluminum, plastic or whatever should be included.

As you can see the listing of all known encased will truly be an ACE project. Incidentally, this idea was discussed and approved at the Milwaukee Central States ACE meeting. Speaking about meetings check out Mike Macuga's memo. He plans to have an ACE meeting in the Boston area. Time, date and location are covered in Mike's letter and is published elsewhere in this issue.

It appears now that there will be three different soft covered books listing all the known encased. The states will be grouped into thirds by alphabetical order. In Issue 12, Alaska, Hawaii and Iowa are featured. Last we heard all are great states and all are listed second on most everyone's popularity list, Wisconsin of course being first. Alaska has very few known encased, at least by me. ACE contributions are sorely needed. Hawaii is limited as well. All the encased listed come from Metcalf's book and are listed as they appear in his book. The Iowa list is from Steve Drakes efforts. Corrections, additions and popularity can be sent to Steve. His address is given by the Iowa list.

After the soft covered books are published and the newly found errors are corrected and additions are added then a one volume book will be forthcoming.

The next issue (13) will list known encased from Florida, Georgia (A good number of these will come from Randy Partin's list), Delaware, District of Columbia and Kansas. As you can see the book idea is slowly becoming a reality. But, again, realize we need ACE member contribution. A summary of what states will be included in what quarterly newsletter/journal is listed elsewhere in this issue.

Larry Oller just sent ACE a 20 page list of known Kansas encased as well as a pretty good number of other state encasements. A special thanks to Larry and to all the other collectors who have sent lists. We also want to thank all those who will contribute in the future.

Keep the maverick list coming in and also feel free to send your extras for the club auction. Thanks to the head frog, Joel Reznick, Al Zaika and others for Mav ID's.

Good Luck, J.Binsfeld

Membership

New members, ACE number, name, address and collecting interest and sponsor if known appears in the ACE Journal/Newsletter upon new membership. Renewals name, ACE number and expiration number is also listed. ACE members are requested to contact the editor regarding any change in name, address, or other business. Membership is $7.00 a year and commences upon paying dues and runs for 12 months from the time the dues is paid. The number behind the ACE number is when membership expires which coincides with the Journal/Newsletter number. The expiration number is also on the address label so be sure to renew when the expiration date is the same as the issue number.

NEW Maverick Listing

Members are encouraged to send encased mavericks to the editor but not more than 50 will be listed at one time unless there is available space for more. (mail bids are limited to 200 lots per issue) Members sometimes inquire about purchasing listed mavericks and a reply will be forthcoming only if the piece is for sale.

Mavericks are numbered and grouped with the first two letters of the surname or major topic.
Each letter group will have its own set of numbers and each piece will also be numbered according to the order received.
Also, the issue number will follow the order number for easier future reference.

A maverick has no indication of town and/or state and in some cases even the issuing business is lacking.

Letters from Members

Sorry so slow on renewal. Please find check enclosed for $21 to cover this year and the next two. Its a real value for a great publication. Many thanks for your sincere work.

Bill Waken

The enclosed encased cent is a donation for the auction. They are being sold locally for $2.50, to raise money for the collectors club.

Thanking you sincerely,
Gerry McLellan

Enclosed is a check for $7.00 to cover my ACE dues. Thanks I enjoy "The Casement" very much.

I have also enclosed three free classified ads.

Glyn Farber

I am member #152. You listed me in February, 1998 Casement Publication, but didn't list what I collect. Could you put in the next publication that I am a collector of WV encasements, bank tokens, and medals.

Do you or any ACE member have any information on The New Jersey Aluminum Company? When it went into business, and when it folded. Is it a scarce encasement manufacturer? I noticed them in the May 1997 issue of "The Casement."

West Virginia Collector
Bob Kirk, 1507 West Riverview Drive, Belle, West Virginia 25015

Enclosed is a check for $7.00 for renewal of my membership in A.C.E. The Association has all the "makings" for a great organization. It has peaked my interest from casual collecting to a high interest level. The Casement is really helpful and well written. The editor does a great job and I'll be willing to bet, it takes a great deal of his time.

Best Wishes,
Howard W Ribbentrop

I would like to thank you for taking time to include my encased cents in your A.C.E. auction. The outcome was very good.

Phil Cusomano

ACE is a great little publication. I learn something new each issue.

Thank you,
J. Teeter

If you would, please list my "E Mail" address in the next publication of "The Casement".

I would also like to purchase all back issues of "The Casement" prior to the August 1997 issue. I would also like to say "A Great Publication", very informative & well done.

Thank You,
Carl Bangora

Enclosed is my check for $7.00. Please continue my membership in ACE. Keep the good issues coming.

My suggestion is that our group should put out a small booklet just on the Chevy listings by state with some pictures.

Sincerely,
Rocco A. DiGiacomo

You left the great state of Maryland out of your member location list on page 3 of issue 11. Ugh!

Just joking. Thanks for the fine job you're doing.

Letters From Members Con't

(editor's note: Maryland is back in, 5 members, how could the second greatest state in the Union be missed?)

I enjoy reading the "Casement". I have collected encased coins for over 10 years +. I have over 600+ pieces. Most of my collection consists of PA, Ohio and N.Y. and Worlds Fair pieces. I would be glad to check my collection with fellow ACE members who are attempting to write a state catalog.

Sincerely,
Richard Crosby

Absolutely love "The Casement" and what you are doing for our brand of exonomia. Keep up the good work.

I just celebrated my 75th birthday on the 11th and wish I had got interested in exonomia 60 years ago. I find the whole field of exonomia fascinating. Some years ago I was in the antique business with my wife Peg (who has since passed away) who specialized in Victorian Art Glass such as Tiffany, Steuben, etc. I just did the "handiwork" and "lugging"! It was fairly successful, but I wish I had gone into exonomia. Anyway that is water over the dam. I actually started accumulating encased coins in 1972 when we bought a small estate and there were 4 or 5 in a shaving mug-all Indian cents. Well, they never got into the shop as I decided to keep them. Until the last couple of years I just "accumulated" them as I found one or two here and there.

Since I joined "ACE" and met Bryan Ryker thru the computer I have become very active in collecting encased and in learning about them. My collection numbers about 700 but no "Teddy Bears" or "goblets"--yet. I have a few that are different--a square one, a dime in a bronze frame (I think) and some bell shaped ones--also quite a few "Fankhauser" ones since I met Bryan.

Concerning the auction, I would like to know more about the procedure--does one send the amount with the bids or wait until billed? Should one bid a bit over even money (such as $3.17 or what? Not very experienced at this sort of thing.

Enclosed is $21.00 for three years dues.

Sincerely,
Ken Humberston

Enclosed $7.00 for renewal. My last Casement was the Nov. 97 copy. Please send me the copy after that.

Thank You,
Irving Wool

Enclosed is a check for $7.00 to join ACE. As I mentioned, my primary interest is encased from Maryland + Hawaii. If you have any for sale or if any ACE member does, please let me know.

Ed Craig

Received the bundle of back issues of "The Casement", thanks. I have read every issue from cover to cover( except page 1 after the first two issues) A lot of great information in each

I even identified a maverick I had. Your maverick number NE: 3 (197). I always thought it may be from Maryland. Mine has a 1903 Indian head cent, not 1901 as listed.

I will be getting a list of Virginia encased I have, off to you in the near future. I have a couple of other projects I am working on now. I found a nice Virginia encased token not long ago.

I sent your name off to a friend, Charles Crews of Appomattox, Va. Charlie would like to join ACE also.

Enclosed is my check for the back issues and postage. I will be calling you before I start with the Virginia list.

Take care.

Sincerely,
Page Mann

Enclosed is a copy of a review by Curtis Judge of my Nebraska Maverick Token booklet. The review is a service to the collectors & dealers alike. No encased are listed. But most collectors of those are also trade token collectors.

Sincerely,
George Hosek

"George Hosek has just published another work in his series dealing with Midwestern trade tokens. This particular volume deals specifically with the attribution of Nebraska state trade token mavericks. The book is printed in the 8 1/2" X 11" full size format on medium grade stock and is spiral bound with card covers. Print reproduction quality is clear and the type style and size chosen makes for easy scanning during reference work.

Letters form Members, con't

The author through many years work on his own and with the help of over 40 other collectors has compiled the most extensive listing of Nebraska trade token mavericks available. Over 3700 different entries are cataloged by business location. It must be noted that this work is not a detailed listing catalog of each token, rather a locator only. Detailed descriptions of the tokens are omitted as are size, rarity and composition information.

The work is divided into three sections. The first is the listing of the tokens alphabetically by merchant name. A brief description is given along with the city location and years of operation if known. The second section is the listing organized alphabetically by city name with the same description data given. The third section is of special interest to topical billiard hall & saloon collectors. It is a ten-page listing transferred from the 1911-12 Nebraska Directory of all known billiard halls and saloons.

This new work will be especially useful to the Nebraska collector and to the segment of our hobby that enjoys the research and location of those elusive maverick tokens.

Autographed copies are available for $20.00 post paid from the author. George Hosek 7411 Idledale Lane, Omaha, NE. 68112 2805, ph. 402-455-1905.

Greetings! I've been referred to you by Stephen Alpert of L.A., Tokens & Medals & Exonumia author. I'm a collector, that crossed over to the other side of the table. I now have a dealer # for Wash. state. My areas of interest seem to expand with each coin show I attend. I am writing to you to obtain more information on encased coins. They're neat.

I am looking for a book/any detailed literature that may be available. Stephen A. wrote to me about your publication and possibly a society for Encased Collectors. Is this society active? Please send whatever info. is available - I have a few pieces now - including a "suit" shape. My curiosity has not been satisfied by what is minimally available. Looking forward to a reply, Kindly,

Carollee Allen

New England In September Is The Place To Be

Calling all ACE members, there will be an ACE membership meeting held in conjunction with the New England Numismatic Association Conference & Convention on September 18 & 19 at the Merrimack Hotel and Conference Center in Merrimack, which is in the great state of NH. This general membership meeting will give ACE members, from this area that cannot make it to the Central States Show, a chance to meet other members, and to introduce our organization to other interested collectors. The meeting will be held on Saturday, September 19, 1998 at 1:30 p.m.

At the convention there will be approximately 55 dealers set up and I hope that there will be at least four dealers that will have quite a few encased and tokens & medals for sale at that time. Plus whatever the "regular" coin dealers have at their tables. Stop by and say hello to your fellow club members, this might be the time to sign up that friend of yours that has been asking you all those questions about your encased collection.

Best of all there will be free giveaways at the meeting for all who attend. Bring your duplicates and we will have a trading session at the meeting. Any questions please contact Mike Macuga, P.O. Box 227, Oakham, MA. 01068 or E-Mail MSMACUGA@aol.com

Pan American Encased Update by Jim Lawniczak

I have an updated report for the Casement on the varieties of 1901 Buffalo Pan American encased. There is a new subvariety to Pae-4, which is the "I am Your Mascot" variety, which will be NY-BUF-Pae-4c. This piece combines the obverse that is -4a (with the two large clovers and the two very small clovers) with the reverse to the Pae-1. It was found by ACE member Chuck Berger of Omaha, Nebraska who lent it to me to establish as a new subvariety. He owns the only known to me example of this piece.

Buffalo Pan American encased Update Con't

There is also a completely new seventeenth variety, the (NY)-BUF-Pae-17. It is a Frying Pan with approximate dimensions 40mm X 70mm, with a stickpin in the end of the handle. On the handle is the word Souvenir. Inside the pan are the words, Pan-American Exposition /Buffalo. The cent is not struck into the encasement (as on the frying pan encased Pae-14) but rather is placed into a hole and fixed in with four short metal tabs. There is no writing on the reverse, instead the lettering from the obverse shows through, and the cent can be partially seen through four small holes. I saw this one in the recent auction of Bob Moffatt of Massachusetts.

If anyone finds any other new Buffalo Pan American Exposition pieces, or would just like to tell me which varieties they have so that I can have a better idea of population, please write me at P.O. Box 14465, Cleveland, Ohio 44114. Jim Lawniczak

Suggested for cataloging encased by Bryan Ryker

(sent to the editor via e-mail - worth sharing with ACE members)

Here is the spreadsheet. It has the following columns in it:
Catalog Number
State
City
Subject
Signature # (used for tiny wording at bottom on some pieces)

Reverse # (common)
Date (of coin)
Mint
Coin
Value
Inscription (wording on the piece)
Topic
Year Made
Notes

You will find the state and city columns very helpful to sort by when you set up the catalog numbers. Especially since when you put mavericks in parenthesis, it makes it so you can't just sort on the catalog number in the computer.

You will need to assign reverse numbers to each reverse style, and then just put the number of the reverse in the listing. The first letter of the reverse number indicates the shape (R=round, B=bell, T=teddy bear, H=horseshoe,...) You should include a picture of each in the catalog if you can.

Same thing for "signature numbers". Just include a key of the various wordings (it's more than just Fankhauser pieces that have "signatures" along the bottom edge in tiny letters) and give each one a number for reference in the listing. The wording on the bottom is part of the description of the piece, and can make an interesting study.

I would not worry too much if your first version of your book does not have complete information on every piece (reverse pictures, signature descriptions,...). The important thing is to have a column for the information, so when it is known there is some place to record it.

Again, if you send me the information you already have on disc, I can fit it into this format.

Then going forward it should be much easier to keep it all organized.

Look again at my catalog of Fankhauser pieces to see how it might all come together in the end. After struggling with many different formats, I think what I ended up with came out very clear and easy to read and use, both for me and for collectors.

I would suggest you forward this blank spreadsheet to each state cataloger. If they need help transitioning into the "standard" format, I can help (if they have it on disc). Once everyone is doing it the same, it should get much better.

My e-mail address here where you can send me attachments is bryker@concentric.net but I don't check this one as often. So send me letters at encased.conis@juno.com

Bryan Ryker

Encased Pricing by Jim Lawniczak

I have heard from several new and non-members that they really do not have any idea about pricing of encased cents. I have seen several auctions on the Internet recently (E-Bay) which show that some buyers don't know either. So, I thought I'd share a little of my experience with you to help you out, as there are no price guides for encased.

The following is a fair rough indication of current pricing for problem free identifiable encased in the EF range - Indian cents: $20 to $35 (though it is getting harder to find any for $20 anymore); 1910s: $10 to $20; 1920s: $8 to $15; 1930s: $6 to $12; 1940s: $5 to $10; 1950s: $3 to $8; and modern issues: $1.50 to $5. Add $5 to $10 for 1910-1930 mintmarks, or other less common dates. Common Fankhausers go for $2 to $4 for nice original or near original specimens. However, adjustments must be made downward for items that are very common and upward for items which are rarer or more desirable or both. Some adjustments need common sense -- I've never seen a 1914D encased (or a 1909S VDB for that matter) but my guess is that an original one would fetch a nice price.

The downward adjustments for very common pieces would include in my opinion: the Souvenir of Washington series (I believe these were available for years at the base of the Washington Monument); the Souvenir of Niagara Falls series; the common New York Stork Club pieces (these include the off center cent and the 1939 New York World's Fair); and some other pieces which are extremely common, including 1946 ARCH Snyder Beaver County, PA.; and 1972 Theron's Country Store, Columbiana, O. There is a substantial discount for stock pieces (which were used as samples and have no advertising or event). Mavericks are a bit lower, but not as much as you might expect. Adjustments must also be made for condition.

Upward adjustments are usually based on desirability of the piece. Examples include: the 1948 Chevrolet series, which adds about $5 to value; shapes (even horseshoes are worth just a bit more than round, with unusual shapes such as teddy bears, the goblets, a shirt, a Niagara Falls barrel and the like commanding very high prices); things people are interested in like railroads and bars and sports; rare states like Wyoming, Alaska and Hawaii; and don't forget adjustment due to nice condition.

Encased Silver Dollar and Cast Varieties

by Jerry Binsfeld

At the Central States Spring Show I found four encased dollars that were being offered for sale. I ended up buying one. The price for the one piece seemed reasonable. Most if not all encased dollars are rare and do command prices in the $50 to $125 price range. The encased I bought was a 1921 Morgan dollar encased in black plastic with white letters that reads, 1939 Silver Anniversary 1964

Consolidated Foods Corporation. This around the dollar on the obverse. The reverse is solid black plastic with a signature in white, most likely the company president and below the signatures also in white letters. October 14, 1964. The encasement is round and measures 48mm.

As I mentioned in an earlier issue I sometimes take part in the bid board at Waukegan Coin located on Lewis Avenue in Waukegan, IL. Recently, I bid and won an encased silver dollar that was a copy of a 1922 Peace dollar. The dollar is made from a casting and was done quite well. It appears at first glance to be an original but with closer inspection tiny indentations are visible. Also, the color of the Peace dollar is an unnatural gold silver which is also a give away that it is a copy. The piece, like the above original, is encased in black plastic but with no lettering on the obverse. The reverse is solid black plastic with white letters which reads, "A Buck For Luck." This item is also 48mm and is consigned by me in the club auction along with the above original and the following two.

Sometime ago a coin dealer friend sold me two other encased that were also copies made like the above. Rd, black plastic, no letters on obverse, reverse is solid black plastic with white letters which reads Honoring /Lewis S. Rosenstiel /May 12, 1958/Jacob M. Arvey/Barnet Hodes. This piece has a 1921 Morgan which also is a cast copy.

The other is a cast copy of a 1922 Peace dollar with red letters on white plastic. The obv.

Encased Silver Dollar and Cast Varieties con't

reads. At Your Service Award. The rev. reads, Jewel/1959. Also, like the others it is round and measures 48mm.

I have never seen any cast copies until these three turned up. Evidently these commemorative and presentation pieces were less expensive to produce with the cast dollars. Common XF silver dollars in the late 50's and early 60's sold for $1.50 to $2.00 each. Cast copies were probably made for less than 50 cent each which included labor and materials so a considerable savings was realized when the give away was in any quantity.

I wonder how many other varieties exist out there. All three copies are similar so they most likely were made by the same company that obviously specialized in encased advertising. Does any ACE member have any information on any others and on the company that produced them? If so, let me know and I will share the info with ACE members.

End of Club Auction
Answer to Ken H. and to all new bidders- Bid any amount even or odd amounts. Do not send money with bids, wait until your winning bids/invoice is received. Bid by lot number. Keep in mind that bids over $10. will be reduced if under bid allows. (It is better to bid $10. then $9.75, the latter will not be reduced. The $10. bid could very well be reduced. Probably wise to go slow at first, pay attention to the prices realized. Start a method of tracking prices received on ACE sales as well as other mail bids. Tracking also will help in deciding which pieces are common. Pay attention to the description, lower your bid if the piece has problems. However, some pieces even in low condition are rare. (here is where tracking can pay off). Pick an area to collect, a particular subject area, all banks, all Good Fors, auto related, certain states, Fankhauser, dates etc. And lastly, feel free to write with any questions, There is no such thing as a stupid question. Good Luck.

*Note this is a check list

*Encasements with different dates should be compared together to see if they are different encasement or just have different dates in the same encasement design. If different designs are known, they will be listed as separate encasements.

Kindly send any lists that you might have on any encased from the following:

Delaware
District of Columbia
Florida
Georgia
Kansas

Issue 13 or a supplement to Issue 13 will list the known encased from the above locations. We would like to include all that are known and that's where we need ACE member's help.
